

Cross-cultural Resource: For Health Practitioners Working With Culturally And Linguistically Diverse (CALD) Clients

by Victoria Camplin-Welch; Waitemata District Health Board; Refugees as Survivors New Zealand Trust

4. Introducing Cultural and Linguistic Diversity Resources Cultural CompetenCy in health: A guide for policy, partnerships and . Queensland is a culturally and linguistically diverse state, with approximately one in five . awareness) training and training specifically for mental health practitioners. those professions to work effectively in cross-cultural situations. 6 the development of resources to support staff in providing inclusive services and for. Queensland Health Cross Cultural Learning and Development . Cross-cultural Resource for Health Practitioners working with Culturally and . and capability to work with culturally and linguistically diverse clients. WDHB has Communication - Centre for Cultural Diversity in Ageing This resource identifies issues and barriers to social, economic and political . Working with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds It is widely recognised that engaging with clients in a way that is considerate of their . This kit for health practitioners outlines the profound effects of cultural identity Cross-Cultural Resources Working with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds. 2 .. Queensland Police Service - has Cross Cultural Liaison Officers and a Cultural .. resource issued by Queensland Health, practitioners "should be careful not to Medicare Local Online Resources - Centre for Culture Ethnicity . The Centre for Culture, Ethnicity and Health (CEH) has released an online tool developed to help healthcare professionals enhance their cross-cultural communication skills. primary health workforce to work more effectively with CALD clients enhance work with patients from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) Cultural Competency: Preparing to look outwards - Conferenz When a CALD woman discloses sexual assault there are a number of . Supporting clients experiencing the impacts of domestic and family violence Working with women and children from Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) communities Mental health of the victim/survivor; Individual worldviews; Cross-cultural Enhancing health literacy in culturally and linguistically diverse . cultures. • work towards consensus with individuals and families from diverse In order for Queensland Health to be a culturally competent organisation, human resources and capital works. The cross-cultural capabilities for clinical and non-clinical staff are the same but . feedback and involve CALD clients in decision-. Introduction to Healthcare for Spanish-speaking Interpreters and . - Google Books Result Cross-cultural Resource For Health Practitioners working with Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) clients. This is an online resource providing Cross-cultural resource for health practitioners working with culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) clients. Auckland: Waitemata District Health Board and Multicultural health Cross-cultural Resource for Health Practitioners working with Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Clients (CALD). Resource contains CD-Rom with summary Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Communities Resource Kit CROSS-CULTURAL TOOLKIT. Cross Cultural Resource for Health Practitioners working with Culturally and Linguistically Diverse. (CALD) Clients. 1. Booklet. Workers & Professionals / Working with women from Culturally and . 9 Dec 2005 . To ensure that the resource developed was as comprehensive as possible across the four domains — systemic, organisational, professional and individual from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, taking a cue from growing Chair, Increasing Cultural Competency Working Committee Developing a culturally competent organisation - Community Door 1 Oct 2015 . *CALD refers to culturally and linguistically diverse groups who are migrants population in New Zealand, health practitioners are experiencing more cross-cultural differences impact on the patient/client – health professional of eCALDTM courses and resources for working with patients is funded by 01 October 2015 Families from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds often have . Cross Cultural Resource for Health Practitioners Working with CALD Clients. FOR HEALTH PRACTITIONERS WORKING WITH CULTURALLY . CALD (Culturally and Linguistically Diverse) training enhances cultural . Professional relationships with CALD clients who have different concepts of by the Cross-Cultural Resource for Health Practitioners Working with CALD Clients . Effective engagement of CALD men - Attorney-General s Department Cultural awareness programs have been the primary method of developing a . The process in which the healthcare professional continually strives to achieve ability and or those professions to work effectively in cross-cultural situations (Cross, R et al 1989) Do I interact with culturally and linguistically diverse persons? About C.A.L.D - RASNZ Refugees as Survivors New Zealand www Title: Cross Cultural Resource for Health Practitioners working with Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) clients. E-Toolkit resource. The aim of this Cross Cultural Resource [e-toolkit] - eCALD services to culturally and linguistically diverse communities and develop a plan to guide . OTHER RESOURCES FOR WORKING WITH CLIENTS FROM CALD . agency or among professionals and enable that system, agency or those professions to work effectively in cross cultural situations (Cross et al, 1989). Culture7. Cross Cultural Resource Booklets for Health Practitioners working with Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) Clients (Click for more information.) C.A.L.D - RASNZ Refugees as Survivors New Zealand - www.rasnz ?Victoria Camplin-Welch Culturally Diverse Workplaces Auckland 28 May 2013 . work with culturally and linguistically diverse clients, families and . Cross Cultural Resource for Health Practitioners working with CALD clients. Cross-Cultural Resource Kit - CALD are proud to have been the key advocate for culturally diverse communities . as members of the ECCV Health Literacy Working Group: CALD -. Culturally and Linguistically Diverse. CEH. -. Centre for Culture Ethnicity and Health. COAG .

resources, with significant benefits for consumers and health professionals. 7. Supporting older people from culturally and linguistically diverse . CALD (Culturally and Linguistically Diverse) training enhances cultural . Cultural competency when working with CALD clients is essential for supported by the Cross-Cultural Resource for Health Practitioners Working with CALD Clients . An Update on eCALDTM Courses and Resources for health . Five Cross Cultural Capabilities for Non-Clinical Staff - Queensland . health and disability (Centre for Cultural Diversity in Ageing). • financial restrictions: CALD older people have fewer financial resources to draw on in their older. Best Practice Principles: CALD Cultural Competency Standards and . The term culturally and linguistically diverse background is used to reflect . the organisation or those professionals to work effectively in cross cultural situations. . will have implications when determining which resources are appropriate for The Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CaLD) Perinatal . C A L D. Cultural and Linguistic Diversity. Competencies Training for Professional. Health A recurring theme in the studies reported is the difficulty that culturally and “Health practitioners working with clients from other cultures need a broad .. Cross Cultural Resource for Health Practitioners Working with CALD. Working with people from culturally and linguistically diverse 24 Nov 2015 . health professionals working with culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) What is CALD Cultural Competence. • Why the need for patient/client – health professional relationship and (Cross et al., 1989). Cultural C A L D - Healthpoint ?The project aimed to provide training for health professionals in working . resource for clinicians working with expectant and new mothers. address perinatal depression within culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) . facilitating learning on issues associated with cross cultural mental health assessment (Stolk, et al. Working with culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) - Australian . Home Resources Practice Guides Communication. Communication. The first step in the provision of culturally appropriate aged care is to address issues around Booklets have been developed to assist clients from culturally and linguistically diverse AUSIT Guidelines for Health Professionals Working with Interpreters. 27084 Describe family/wh?nau and other natural supports of . - NZQA CALD Cultural Competency Training and Resources – Working with Service Users . . as the health and disability workforce working with culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) migrant service users/consumers/patients/clients and their .. professionals to work effectively in cross-cultural situations (Cross et al., 1989;